All the materials which the CZPMH (Central Administration Office of the Polish Merchant Marine) asked for in its 1953 yearly plan, such as steel, cables, screws, bolts, etc. for the maintenance of the merchant fleet, have been taken over by the Ministry of National Defense. CZPMH has received instructions from the PKPG (Polish Economic Planning Commission) to replace these goods by purchasing abroad. A sum of £10,000 in sterling has been made available to CZPMH for this purpose. All chief engineers and officers of Polish ships visiting European ports have been given a list of materials urgently required with instructions to purchase them for cash in western ports.
